DEDICATION

Through the prospering years between childhood and adolescence most of the credit for the student's education is given, with proper consideration, to the teachers. Although we feel the teachers are highly responsible for the student's progress, there are still others who deserve much more credit than is given them. They are the ones responsible for our being here in the graduating class today.

Our class, with great pleasure and justifiable pride, would like to take these people from the background and place them in the limelight by bestowing upon them the highest possible honor.

Therefore, we, the class of 1967, dedicate our yearbook, The Vallis, to our parents.

As a result of the initiation of a program by the Student Council of 1965-66, Chuck Courson was sent to Bogota, Colombia, during the summer of 1966.

While there, he attended school with his "brothers," and made many sightseeing tours.

Chuck has started a scrapbook for Foreign Exchange students, and each year a new country will be added to its pages. Although Chuck has been the pioneer in this field, we hope he will be followed by a flock of students.

REDBANK'S AMBASSADORS

Redbank's first Foreign Exchange Student, Fernando Isaza, came to us from Medellin, Colombia, on November 24, 1966.

During his stay he lived with Lee Courson family, and visited varied points of interest in the area. While he was here, he attended the sports events and dances.

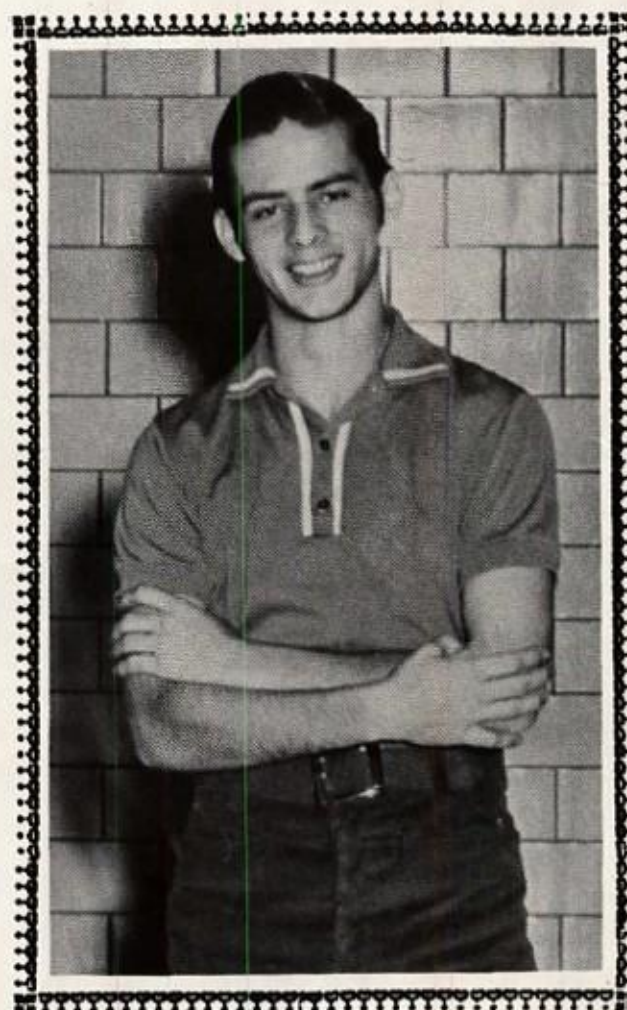

At Christmas time the Student Council presented Fred with a wrist watch, and before his departure he received an engraved cigarette lighter from the seventh grade.

Fred was the first among many students who will be visiting us from foreign countries in the future years.

I am so grateful to you, because you were very good with me, and I wish you the best luck in the World.

sincerely,

Fernando Isaza
